MIS-STRUCK CURRENCY OR SO-CALLED FREAKS

1869.	$1.00 Silver Certificate. 1935-E. A red and white rejection flag placed on this note by the Inspector, in error of seal which is too far to left, and signature is in the design. Unc. Scarce	— —
1870.	$1.00 Silver Certificate. 1935-D. With red and white rejection flag and red crayon rejection mark across the face. This signature is to the right of the design. Seal is too far to the right. Unc.	— —
1871.	$5.00. 1953 Legal Tender. Red Seal. Reverse design at top shows margin enough for two notes, plus a portion of another note. Unc.	— —
1872.	$1.00. 1935-E. Silver Certificate. This is one of the most unusual oversights. Inspector had noticed the third number in the serial number should have been 5 instead of 4. It was passed even after it was rejected with a heavy crayon cancellation across the whole face of the bill and again with red crayoned 5 over 4. Unc.	— —

A REAL RARITY IN CURRENCY

1873.	A complete uncirculated set of $1.00 Silver Certificates. 31 pieces in all. Illustrating the manner of assigning serial numbers to U. S. Currency. Since a number in excess of 8 digits cannot be used, a system of Suffix letters and Prefix letters to the numbers is employed. It happens that this set, by reason of change in signing officers, also illustrated the change over from Series 1935 D to Series 1935 E without any change in the Suffix Letter "G" This set contains all the consecutive alphabetic Prefix letters "A" to "Z". (except letter "O" which is never used) with the same Suffix letter "G". For added illustration of the change over of prefix letters and suffix letters, this set also contains the last two prefix letters "Y" and "Z" of the preceding suffix letter group "F", and also the next three prefix letters "A", "B" and "C" of the next succeeding suffix letter group "H". Unusual and wholly unique with such a set, which will never occur again as to these series and probably never again in any other series, is the fact that, by reason of such change over in signing officers, there are two certificates with the same prefix letter "N", one for each of the Series 1935-D and Series 1935-E. MOST DIFFICULT TO VALUE. Undoubtedly unique. Unc.	— —
